

Chart Your Progress

Use the following table to jot your notes and to evaluate your individual learning from Part 1 of Byways 101. DO NOT SUBMIT THIS FORM to the National Scenic Byways Foundation or the National Scenic Byways Program. It is strictly for your personal use.

1. After completing all five Learning Objectives in Part 3, print or download this form. Write a short answer to each question. This is your “after” answer. Keep a printout in your Byways 101 file or another convenient file.
2. Compare your answers from before (your notes on the “Check Your Knowledge” page). See if your knowledge and understanding has increased, or where you may need to learn more.

STAKEHOLDERS	After Answer
Why is it important to build local support for byways?
What important considerations will help to identify key community members and stakeholders for the byway?
PUBLIC PARTICIPATION
Why are public meetings an important part of any byway initiative?
What considerations should a “participation strategy” include?
Why is it important to understand the “political complexity” of your byway?
Why is it important to understand the “resource complexity” of your byway?
What are some important considerations in tribal community involvement?
What are some important steps and considerations for holding your first public meeting?

BYWAY PURPOSE
Why is it important to have a clear statement of purpose for your byway?
What things should be considered in a statement of purpose for the byway?
VISION, MISSION, GOALS, AND OBJECTIVES
What is a byway vision statement?
What is a byway mission statement?
How do goal statements support the byway vision?
How do objectives differ from goals?
BYWAY ORGANIZATIONS
What are some common organizational structures for byway groups?
What are some important considerations in deciding which organizational structure might best suit the needs of your byway group?
What are some important considerations for the sustainability of byway organizations?	